The College draws its distinctiveness from its location and the student community it serves. The location of the College makes it surrounded by rural areas of the district of Samastipur, home for marginalized section of the society. Most of the students are first generation learners. The College caters to the needs of such students with utmost dedication. Over the five decades of its existence, the College has evolved in identifying the needs of the clientele and serving to the best of their satisfaction and progress. One of the illustrations of such unique achievement has been that the College draws a considerable number of students from other districts as well. The College tries to focus on local community in research and development activities. This can be gauged from the programmes of the NSS and research on local issues such as water quality and development of villages in the recent past.

8.Future Plans of Actions for Next Academic Year

In view of COVID-19 pandemic major changes in planning has to be carried out. The campus will be made to adhere to government guidelines for containment of infection. Most of the classes will be carried out in on line mode, so study materials will be provided online. Social media groups of students and staffs will be strengthened for better communication. Different ICTs will be utilized in conducting classes and clarifying the doubts of students. In carrying out most essential on site duties by college staffs, efficient sanitization will be planned. Rationalization of staff attendance will be taken up if needed so that the college activities don't suffer. The university is planning different measures to avoid lagging of academic sessions. For this exams will be conducted with new protocols. The college will take measures for greater compatibility and hassle free exams. For the benefit of teachers and students, online webinars will be organized. As there is mechanism in place for this purpose, more and more departments will be assisted in conducting webinars with greater participation of students and academic persons. As dependency on computer will increase, more computers will be procured and staffs will be trained to use the same.
